

Lucas White is chairman-elect of the Independent Community Bankers of America® (ICBA), the only national organization that exclusively represents community banks.

White has served as president of The Fountain Trust Company since 2016 and actively practices law in the family firm of White & White Attorneys LLP.

White serves in many leadership roles at ICBA. He is a member of the ICBA Executive Committee and board of directors and is chairman of the Federal Delegate Board. He is a member of ICBA's Policy Development and Nominating committees. He is Executive Committee liaison for the Minority Bank Advisory Council and Bank Operations Committee and a member of the ICBA Securities board.

A fourth-generation community banker, White is an active member of his community and is a partner at White & White Attorneys LLP, is a trustee of the Booe Inlow d'Arlier Charitable Foundation, serves on the West Central Regional Community Corrections Board, and is a member of the Covington Business Association. He is also a current member and past chairman of the Indiana Bankers Association.

White has a bachelor's degree from Indiana University and is a graduate of Indiana University-Bloomington Maurer School of Law, where he was awarded the Order of the Coif.
